The Republican Champion of Newport, N. H., contains the following item: "At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Peerless Manufacturing company, which was held at the factory Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 14, the following directors were elected: Perley A. Johnson, Irving G. Rowell of Manchester, William E. Turner of New York, Elwin N. Johnson Eugene P. Paul, A. P. Underwood of Barton, Vermont. The last two named increased the number of directors to seven instead of five as has been the custom heretofore. The board organized as follows: P. A. Johnson, president; William E. Turner, vice president and general manager; Elwin N. Johnson, treasurer; and Eugene P. Paul, secretary."

Red Cross Receives Appeal.

Major Grayson Murphy, commissioner for Europe, is calling for a large order of knitted articles, such as sweaters, mufflers, socks and wristlets. One million and a half of each of these articles are needed; possibly other woolsen articles as well. These articles are to be used only for our men, but for the civilian population whose needs we should alleviate.

We hope within a week, or possibly two, to get a large amount of wool on hand. I should like each Chapter, Branch, Auxiliary and Auxiliary-at-large to canvass their knitters, find out how many of each of these articles they think they can deliver in a month and see if we cannot get each chapter to make a special effort on this work for the next two months, as we are desirous of getting the goods abroad before the cold weather sets in. We do not want you to relinquish your efforts in other lines, but try to stimulate other people and other means of getting this knitting work out as quickly as possible.

Hoping to hear from you at the very earliest possible moment, I am, Very truly yours, James Jackson, Division Manager. Anyone wishing to knit please notify Mrs. W. W. Reiden or Mrs. Clarence Webster.

Will not all who pledged to the war fund please pay pledges as soon as possible to Mrs. C. S. Webster, treasurer.

116 MORE COUNTY MEN CALLED.

Comparatively Few Pass Physical Examination. Names of 33 Men Who Will Serve.

The work of the exemption board, consisting of O. C. Miller, H. B. Cushman and Dr. J. F. Blanchard of Newport, is a task the size of which is little realized by those who have not seen something of the strenuousness of the days this board has spent for the past two weeks.

Already 384 men have been summoned before the board and now 116 more have been called making 500 in all. Of the first 184 men summoned 33 will be finally called for service, and of the next 200 called only 35 or 40 will be found fit for service and from the final 116 called it is expected enough more men will be found to make the county's quota of 92 men.

The names of 33 men who have passed the physical examination and have not been exempted by the local board, and who will serve in the new army unless found unfit by the regular army medical examination or are exempted by the district board to whom they may appeal with exemption claims, are given out and here published for the first time.

Official notice is being sent today to the 116 men whose names will be found in these columns, to appear before the board at Newport at the time specified.

The following 33 men out of the first 184 called, are subject to military service and have not been exempt or discharged:

The Barton Improvement club has received a communication from Boston & Maine officials asking it to urge the immediate unloading of freight cars that their use may be had again at once. It is understood most cars are promptly unloaded at this point but since every day's business of every car counts toward the winning of the war every effort is being made to keep them moving. The country over it is estimated that 25,000 cars are daily unnecessarily idle because plans for immediate unloading are not made by receivers.

STORMS PLAY HAVOC.

Lightning Burns Barns and Contents. Damages M. E. Church Steeple.

Electric storms of the past week have done much damage in and about Barton village which appears to have been the center of some of the worst storms yet experienced.

Lightning on Thursday evening struck the barn on the Milo Owen place a mile out of the village on the Burton hill road, setting them on fire and destroying them with 12 cows, hens, hogs, a large quantity of hay and $500 worth of maple sugar. Comparatively little insurance was carried and the loss to Mr. Owen is very heavy.

It is probable but for the assistance of a large number of men who went to the scene of the fire from the village the house would have gone, but a bucket brigade did effective service and saved that much for Mr. Owen.

During the same storm a bolt of lightning struck the Methodist church steeple. Slate from the roof was torn off and brick thrown from one corner of the steeple, while the bolt continued its way to the ground doing slight damage inside. The damage to the steeple is quite serious and will probably cost several hundred dollars to repair.

Following this damage by lightning a cloud-burst on Friday afternoon did great damage to the streets. Lincoln and Harrison avenues suffered worst, but great gullies were made at many points about the village.

There have been several other hard storms but comparatively little damage was done by them. The heavy showers have raised the lake materially.

THE MONITOR AND THE RED CROSS.

Next week the Monitor will contain an important and interesting announcement concerning a campaign it is starting for the Red Cross chapters of Orleans county. It will cover the county, benefit every Red Cross chapter in the county and every person in the county may easily do his part in the campaign.

This plan should easily net the various branches of the Red Cross organization in this vicinity several hundred dollars, and the plan calls for no gifts whatever. Secretary Howard of Burlington writes that he approves of the plan and those chapters to which it has been explained are enthusiastic. Not all chapters have yet been visited or the plan would be given in detail here, but next week the whole plan will be made clear.
